Special rules apply to unpaid leave subject to the FMLA of 1993 and the Uniformed Service Employment and Reemployment Rights Act of 1994 that the averaging method exclude if from calculation so that the employee is not disadvantaged by taking these leaves. Rules only apply to employees who are in continuing service, not to those who are terminated and then rehired. Employees not paid on an hourly based may be calculated on (1) counting actual hours of service; (2) using a days-worked equivalency, which credits the employee with 8 hours of service for each day or (3) using a weeks-worked equivalency of 40 hours of service per week. A large employer will be treated as having offered coverage to its full-time employees and their dependents for a calendar month if, coverage is offered to 95% of its full-time employees as long as dependent coverage was also offered. as reported in Box 1 of the Form W-2 instead of household income in regards to the most cost effective minimum qualified health plan option actuarially equivalent to the Bronze Plan. » Employers should be aware that there are two “play or pay” tests – the objective test and the subjective test. The objective test asks whether the covered employer provides any level of health care coverage. If the answer is no, the employer penalty is $2,000 per employee (with a 30 person deductible). The subjective test asks if the employer provides health care coverage, is that coverage sufficiently affordable and robust. Coverage is sufficiently affordable if the cost is 9.5% or less of employee’s W-2 form compensation for the most cost effective single coverage for an employee’s benefit plan. » The Penalty will be the lesser of the objective and subjective test-the IRS wants to make sure the employers who are providing some level of coverage do not end up paying more in penalties than an employer who is not providing any coverage. » Employers will be penalized if an employee receives a premium tax credit provided by the Federal Government to Insurance Marketplaces/Exchanges on behalf of individuals whose income is between 100 and 400 percent of the poverty level.
